GENERAL NOTICES

INFORMATION FROM THE DEAN OF THE SEMINARY

M.Div. Seniors

All senior M.Div. students who took the Profiles of Ministry instrument when they arrived as Juniors two years ago now have the opportunity to take a similar instrument prepared for those who are in their last year of seminary. This exit tool will enable a senior student to reflect on changes of understanding or attitude which may have taken place during the past two years and can be helpful to the student in seeking placement.

We hope that all seniors will want to take advantage of this opportunity. The structured interview appointments will be made only with those who have completed the casebook. Seniors who wish to complete the exit profile materials are invited to do the casebook part of this on Wednesday, September 28 or Wednesday, October 5, beginning at 1:30 p.m. in Room 6, Stuart Hall. An individual may choose only one of these dates. It takes approximately two to three hours to complete this instrument. Seniors who wish to do the casebook but cannot make either of the above dates should see Mrs. Ford in the Office of the Dean of the Seminary, 128 Administration Building, to arrange alternative possibilities.

UPCOMING EVENTS

KAGAWA CENTENNIAL

Letter to the Seminary Community from

Fred W. Cassell
Vice President for Seminary Relations

and

Sang H. Lee
Director,
Asian-American Program

Dear Friends,

A 1915 graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, Toyohiko Kagawa was one of the best known and most distinguished of all Japanese Christians.

Greatly respected as an international churchman and highly regarded for his work among the poor, he was also a very controversial figure. His pacifism and his advocacy for the rights of the poor and oppressed made him unpopular with many in his native Japan.

Kagawa was born on July 10, 1888, and this year the centennial of his birth is being celebrated. As part of that celebration, and in recognition of the life and ministry of this distinguished alumnus, we at Princeton Seminary are hosting several special events on Thursday and Friday, October 27 and 28.

Thursday, October 27

4:30 p.m. Dr. Fukada, Japanese theologian and Kagawa scholar, will lecture in the Mackay Campus Center Main Lounge. His topic is: "Toyohiko Kagawa, a Mosaic Artist for God."

7:30 p.m. Program in the Mackay Campus Center auditorium by Kagawa's daughter, the Reverend Umeko Momii: "Reflections on My Father's Life"; a documentary film about his life will be shown; and a choir from a Japanese congregation will sing several of the hymns composed by Kagawa.

Friday, October 28

12:30 p.m. Student Fellowship discussion in the Mackay Campus Center Main Lounge with the Reverend Momii.

You are encouraged to attend these events and celebrate with us the memory of this great Christian scholar and social activist.

KAGAWA CENTENNIAL

Letter to the Seminary Community from

Fred W. Cassell
Vice President for Seminary Relations

and

Sang H. Lee
Director,
Asian-American Program

Dear Friends,

A 1915 graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, Toyohiko Kagawa was one of the best known and most distinguished of all Japanese Christians.

Greatly respected as an international churchman and highly regarded for his work among the poor, he was also a very controversial figure. His pacifism and his advocacy for the rights of the poor and oppressed made him unpopular with many in his native Japan.

Kagawa was born on July 10, 1888, and this year the centennial of his birth is being celebrated. As part of that celebration, and in recognition of the life and ministry of this distinguished alumnus, we at Princeton Seminary are hosting several special events on Thursday and Friday, October 27 and 28.

Thursday, October 27

4:30 p.m. Dr. Fukada, Japanese theologian and Kagawa scholar, will lecture in the Mackay Campus Center Main Lounge. His topic is: "Toyohiko Kagawa, a Mosaic Artist for God."

7:30 p.m. Program in the Mackay Campus Center auditorium by Kagawa's daughter, the Reverend Umeko Momii: "Reflections on My Father's Life"; a documentary film about his life will be shown; and a choir from a Japanese congregation will sing several of the hymns composed by Kagawa.

Friday, October 28

12:30 p.m. Student Fellowship discussion in the Mackay Campus Center Main Lounge with the Reverend Momii.

You are encouraged to attend these events and celebrate with us the memory of this great Christian scholar and social activist.

His publications include Fallible Man, Freedom and Nature: The Voluntary and the Unvoluntary, The Symbolism of Evil, Freud and Philosophy, and Time and Narrative. Professor Ricoeur's topic will be "Philosophical and Theological Accounts of the Golden Rule."

The Neumann lectureship was established in 1983 by Dr. Edith Neumann in memory of her husband, Dr. Frederick Neumann (1899-1967), to reflect his broad theological interests. He was a philosopher, Biblical scholar, missionary, and pastor.

Join CCMG at their first regularly scheduled meeting. Praise and prayer will be offered for a PTS "spiritual revival," to inspire students for a new vision of the work of the church. CCMG particularly seeks to raise seminarian interest in considering positions in overseas mission work and inner-city or rural areas of this country, where the need for committed pastors is greatest. If you can play drums, flute, trumpet, guitar, etc., or can just make a joyful noise to the Lord, please come to this first meeting.

The Association of Black Seminarians will hold their monthly meeting. An agenda will be circulated prior to Thursday's meeting.

FIELD EDUCATION WORKSHOP

Thursday, November 3, Main Lounge
Part I: 1:30 - 3:00 p.m.; Part II: 3:30 - 5:00 p.m.
"Cults and Coercion: Jonestown, 10 Years Later"
November is National Cult Awareness Month. Ten years ago a tragedy of international proportions occurred in Jonestown, Guyana. The mass suicide of hundreds of members of a cult headed by the Reverend Jim Jones graphically brought to public awareness the potential negative and destructive impact of religious cults. The Cult Awareness Network has designated November as National Cult Awareness Month.

On November 3, a workshop called "Cults and Coercion: Jonestown, 10 Years Later" will be given for Teaching Church pastors. The Reverend Michael Rokos, an Episcopal priest and a member of the Cult Awareness Network, will lead the two-part workshop which will: 1) identify the symptoms of the problem of cultic and satanic activity, techniques of control, and coercion, and; 2) identify pastoral responses to families caught in the problem. Students undertaking field education working with the youth and the elderly are encouraged to participate in the workshop.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Week: November 14 - 18
"A Way of Living"

Stewardship has become "A Way of Living" at the Seminary, a way the Stewardship Committee will celebrate a commitment to the stewardship activities for 1988-89. The Seminary community is asked to be a part of this festival of giving.

Stewardship Week launches a year-long exploration to define the meaning of stewardship to the Seminary's sense of community and to understand stewardship as "a way of living" to which we are called.

Stewardship is participation in God's reconciling work. It doesn't mean compulsive giving, a church budget, or even an ethical response. Instead stewardship is an opportunity to participate in a "way of living," a way that involves constructive service, critical awareness, costly compassion and community building.

On Monday, November 14 you will receive an invitation to participate in the ventures of stewardship. We ask that you prayerfully consider your response and then return your RSVP to the Stewardship Committee by the end of the week, Friday, November 18. Please join in during this festival of giving--giving thanks to God through committing yourself to stewardship activities for 1988-89.

If you are interested in being a part of a Squibb Pharmaceutical Study to benefit the stewardship program on campus, please contact Trace Haythorn, 683-7279. The first study in November, with a donation from Squibb, will earn $1500 per participant for the Stewardship Committee. Consider this challenge to support stewardship as "a way of living."

GENERAL NOTICES

FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

All Seniors: Members of the M.Div. Senior Class are reminded of the need for them to complete the Casebook material on the Profiles of Ministry Program. Now that Ordination Exams and mid-terms are over, there is an excellent opportunity to do this before the Christmas break. If you have not as yet picked up a copy of the Casebook and the Answer Sheet, please do so immediately from the Office of the Dean of the Seminary, 128 Administration Building. You will be hearing from some member of the Department of Student Affairs in the near future in regard to this. If you will need to delay completing your Casebook material until after the end of classes, please inform the member of the Department of Student Affairs with whom you did your Junior structured interview of this. We need to hear from everyone of you. All Casebook Answer Sheets must be received by January 10, 1989, at the very latest or there will not be time to process them and get in the structured interviews in time for use in the second semester. Your cooperation is urgently requested.

Graduate Study Fellowship: Once again this year the Seminary is able to offer a Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Pulpit Ministry to one or two members of the Master of Divinity senior class who will graduate next June. It is anticipated that the amount of these awards will be approximately $10,000. Information sheets and applications for the award should be obtained in the Office of the Dean of the Seminary and all such applications must be returned to the Office of the Dean of the Seminary by 4:00 p.m. January 10, 1989.

An important change in the requirements for this award is that it is no longer limited to Presbyterian students. The donors have simply stipulated that the recipient be a member of a Protestant church. See description on page 151 of the current catalogue.

ADVENT EVENING PRAYER

Evening Prayer in Advent, November 27 through December 17, Miller Chapel, 10:30 p.m.

In addition, a sale of crafts will take place in the basement, along with refreshments. Here is your chance to give of the gifts God has given you for the betterment of others. FROM THE DEAN'S OFFICE

All Seniors: Members of the M.Div. Senior Class are reminded of the need for them to complete the Casebook material on the Profiles of Ministry Program. Now that Ordination Exams and mid-terms are over, there is an excellent opportunity to do this before the Christmas break. If you have not as yet picked up a copy of the Casebook and the Answer Sheet, please do so immediately from the Office of the Dean of the Seminary, 128 Administration Building. You will be hearing from some member of the Department of Student Affairs in the near future in regard to this. If you will need to delay completing your Casebook material until after the end of classes, please inform the member of the Department of Student Affairs with whom you did your Junior structured interview of this. We need to hear from everyone of you. All Casebook Answer Sheets must be received by January 10, 1989, at the very latest or there will not be time to process them and get in the structured interviews in time for use in the second semester. Your cooperation is urgently requested.

Graduate Study Fellowship: Once again this year the Seminary is able to offer a Graduate Study Fellowship for the Parish Pulpit Ministry to one or two members of the Master of Divinity senior class who will graduate next June. It is anticipated that the amount of these awards will be approximately $10,000. Information sheets and applications for the award should be obtained in the Office of the Dean of the Seminary and all such applications must be returned to the Office of the Dean of the Seminary by 4:00 p.m. January 10, 1989.

An important change in the requirements for this award is that it is no longer limited to Presbyterian students. The donors have simply stipulated that the recipient be a member of a Protestant church. See description on page 151 of the current catalogue.

Papers from course HR45, Spring '88 Christians and the Challenge of Islam, Fr. Griffith, may be picked up in the Academic Dean's office, 124 Administration Building, any weekday between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.
